

A 40-year-old female presents with symmetric joint pain and swelling in her hands and wrists, morning stiffness lasting over an hour, and fatigue. Laboratory tests show positive rheumatoid factor and elevated ESR.